

ORANGE COUNTY BU

Vol. 41, No. 52

THE COMMUNITY OF BUS

Masterful Event

► Julia Argyros, president, Argyros Family Foundation; Sue Gross, Orange County philanthropist

“Chef Masters,” benefiting Alzheimer’s Family Center, held its inaugural benefit for 375 guests at the oceanfront Paséa Resort & Spa in Huntington Beach on Oct. 28. Major underwriters were Julia Argyros, president of the Argyros Family Foundation, and philanthropist Sue Gross.

The culinary extravaganza offered guests a 90-minute gourmet food and wine reception on the resort’s terrace featuring 31 top Orange County chefs and restaurants, as well as an offering of up-scale California wines.

Participating restaurants included Tanner’s, Paséa Hotel & Spa, Oceans & Earth, Future Foods Farm, Orange Hill Restaurant, True Food Kitchen, Prego Ristorante, The Winery Restaurant & Wine Bar and Journeyman’s Food & Drink.

At the event center, Chief Executive Joanna Richardson-Jones recognized Hoag Hospital for its 40 years of support.

Bi

GIVI

■ By P

Bill G

The co
cific Inv time bon new four Gross F

The La and Sue with his